Chabad Info

25 Tamuz 5770 (07.07.2010)

Based on tickets distributed, 1778 people participated in the elections.

12 of them were challenged and their ballots were put into separate envelopes, until their eligibility is determined.

These challenges left 1766 ballots that reached the ballot box.

The tally of the ballot box were:

851 ballots Brownstien - Hackner

808 ballots Hackner - Hecht

96 ballots Brownstein - Hecht

6 invalid ballots that had all three names

4 invalid ballots that had only one name

1 empty ballot

1 ballot that a determination needs to be made if the voter voted for two or for all three.

This gives us a total of 1767 ballots in the ballot box (a discrepancy of one ballot).

The actual votes when added together total as follows:

Hackner - 1659 votes.

Brownstein - 947 votes.

Hecht - 904 votes

Fishel Brownstein and Yossi Hackner

3. Brownstein Victory

Leibish Nash

Didan notzach over the pashkvils, over lies and misinformation. Good riddance to the hate-filled rhetoric. A real Chanukah celebration of light over darkness, of truth over multicolored glossy campaign flyers! The Rebbe's vision for Crown Heights is a little closer.

4. Brownstein victory

Mazel tov!

Now let's get on with building the community! Great news!!!!

5. mazal tov

b"h fishel got in what a disaster if the other one would have gotten in!!!!

6. Mazal Tov!7. Go Fishel!!!

Boruch

We knew you could do it!!!

8. Wow

Happy to hear the good news.

I see that C"H does have some brains.

9. Brownstein Victory

Brownstein should remain the Chairman. Tamir and Hackner were elected only by default and have no experience. If they put away their kovod for the sake of the community we will have a good beginning.

10. Congratulations Tamir, Brownstein and Hackner... BS"D

Boruch N. Hoffinger

let us all work together, as Mr. Brownstein said, "one man with one heart."

Fishel is a Koahaine, as I am, and it was his birthday!

May this occasion auger in a period of unity and transparency.

Let all the foolishness cease and may the 'ratzon' of The Rebbe, MH"M be supreme in our hearts and minds to usher in the 'Age of Moshiach!'

May we all march together towards 'Yerushalayim' and witness the glorious rebuilding of our 'Beis HaMikdash!'
